NEWS BUDGET FROM PATRICIA BAY DISTRICTChildren Had an Enjoyable Time at the Home of Mrs. Gwynne
Last Saturday

(Review Correspondent.)
PATRICIA BAY, Jan. 3.—Mrs. Gwynne, superintendent of Holy Trinity Sunday School, gave a most delightful Christmas party at her home, "Ardmore Grange," last Saturday. A love Christmas tree, heavily laden with presents was the big attraction for the little ones. After the children had partaken of the many good things provided by the hostess the distributing of the presents followed. Very amusing parlor games were indulged in for the remainder of the evening. Those invited for this happy event were Rev. T. M. Hughes, rector, Miss E. Gwynne, Mrs. Clowes, Miss Williams, Miss Daphne Fraser, Caroline Williams, Nellie Bowman, Diana Fraser, Lidia Livingston, Elsie Chancellor, Audrey Livingston, Frances Salmon, Frank Hill, Jack Livingston, Clifford Hill, Philip Salmon, Wilfred Hill, "Bunty" Garvie, Bernard Livingston, Barbara Clowes, Harold and Peter Clowes and George Pownall.

Mr. J. S. H. Matson, of "Glenmorgan Farm," left last week for a three weeks' visit to Toronto.

The Misses Sangster returned to Victoria last Tuesday after spending the holidays here.

The friends of Masters Clifford and Wilfred Hill will be sorry to learn that they have been ill with the "flu," and hope to see them around again soon.

Mr. Wm. Bryce, who spent a week's holiday with relatives here, has returned to Portland to resume his studies.

Miss G. Muir and friends spent New Year's at the Bay.

WEEKLY NEWS BUDGET
FROM JAMES ISLANDNew Year Ushered In by James Island Residents in a Noisy Manner

(Review Correspondent.)
JAMES ISLAND, Jan. 2.—Instead of the conventional peal of musical church bells greeting the New Year, it was heralded on James Island by hideous noises, pistols, fireworks and the groans of un-musical instruments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon and family have returned from their visit to Mrs. Jays in Vancouver. They have also been visiting Gabriola Island and Nanaimo.

Mrs. T. Whalen entertained her friends at tea last Tuesday, the party being in honor of Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Van Norman, who both had birthdays on that day. The decorations were in pink and white and there was a beautiful birthday cake with nine candles. (Why nine, being a mystery.) Much merriment was made of the cutting of cake, Mrs. Lyons slicing so far, Mrs. Van Norman putting the finishing touches. Mrs. Whalen presented each with a birthday gift, and after enjoying the cake and many other good things, the guests departed.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Norman, Arthur and Daisy, left last Saturday afternoon to spend a few days with their parents there.

Mr. B. C. L. Bean and Nell, with Allen as their guest, returned to Victoria on Saturday.

T. Whalen entertained a few friends at dinner on Friday night.

Spencer's boat went adrift in stormy weather on Sunday. She washed against the government wharf, where she sustained slight damage, and was towed back by Mr. Henderson.

Henderson has a little niece with her.

A. J. Dakin gave a New Year's party to a few of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Branson have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burrows for Christmas and New Year.

Mrs. Holland has given up her work at the office and is being taken on by Miss Connie Ford.

Mr. Kennedy has taken the place of Mr. Gould as engineer on the "May Forelle."

Mr. and Mrs. Willmot and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clowes, at their home on Christmas Day.

NEWS OF THE WEEK
FROM MAYNE ISLANDVery Enjoyable Fancy Dress Dance
Was Held at Mayne Island on Dec. 29

(Review Correspondent.)
MAYNE ISLAND, Jan. 2.—The Mayne Island fancy dress dance, which took place on Friday night, was voted a huge success by those who attended. The most striking costumes were worn by Mrs. Shaw, as Gypsy; Mr. Shaw, Chinese mandarin; Mr. Hill, Indian; Miss Gurney, Red Wing; Mr. Allan, clown; Miss Hill, Flying Corps; Mr. R. Hall, jazz; N. Steward, Little Boy Blue; Messrs. L. Bellhouse and J. Kingsmill, Aunt Dinahs; Miss Marshall Spanish lady; Mrs. Bellhouse, parlor maid; Mr. S. Page, padre; Mrs. Alan, Indian princess; Mr. T. Gurney, flapper. There were many more excellent costumes. A delightful supper was served during the evening.

Word has been received from Mrs. Sandford they had arrived at St. John after a comfortable journey across the continent, and had been visiting Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Stewart.

We do feel most grateful to Mr. Abbot who gave us a New Year's eve service on Sunday evening, Mr. Price having to take the service at Port Washington. We had missed our Christmas hymns, the organist being on the sick list, and so with Mr. Abbot presiding at the organ, we sang the Christmas hymns, ending with "Fight the Good Fight." Those of us present felt grateful for the services ending the old year.

On Monday Mr. and Miss Ida New came over to Mayne to meet Miss G. New, who arrived on the Charmer. Tuesday, Mr. Emery returned from Victoria where he had been to spend Christmas with his parents.

Miss Stewart and Mr. G. Stewart took tea at Point Comfort on Boxing Day.

Santa was about again Wednesday and visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coates. Quite a number of children had a good time round the Christmas tree, receiving their presents and playing games, after which a splendid tea was served, Miss Luden and Mrs. G. Maude assisting at the tables. The guests were Mrs. Forster and three sons, Mrs. Jones, with Peggy and John, Mrs. G. Laddon, with Ruth, Gerald, James, Norman and John, Mrs. J. Robson and Jessie, Mrs. Morgan, with her three children, Mrs. Naylor, Mrs. and Miss Gurney.

Thursday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Moir took tea at Point Comfort.

I had such a pleasant outing on New Year's day with a party of friends. We landed at Mr. Georgeon's wharf, and called to wish the Georgeon family the compliments of the season. We were met by Mr. Morgan and the faithful Dobbin. So nice to ride behind a real live geezer again (I like motors, but I love horses.) After a most pleasant drive, one of the party remarked on the beauty of the road, saying that of all the islands Galliano took the cake, making those of us who hailed from Mayne smile a rueful smile. Arriving at the pretty home of Mrs. Morgan we found the Union Jack flying, and it was a pretty scene inside the house, which was beautifully decorated, and the Yule log burning. The tea table for the kiddies was most artistically arranged with a miniature tree in the centre, all decorated and lighted, and a bun was dancing all over the table. The older guests had tea in the drawing room. We all enjoyed ourselves immensely. (My grandmother used to say, "Not yourselves, your friends, my dear.") And we certainly did enjoy our friends. Mr. Morgan again drove us back to the wharf where we started for home, having spent a very happy New Year's day. It was a good thing our hostess did not hear all the compliments paid her by members of the party on the way home.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. Maude, Miss Maude, Mr. Hall and Mr. Corfion attended a dance given at the home of Mrs. Hollhouse on Galliano Island.

The many friends of Mrs. G. Anstey will regret to learn that she has been ill for several days past, and one and all will wish her a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Anstey and family have been spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Simister at their home on Galliano Island.

Of course, the inner man had been amply provided for by the hostess, and the enthusiastic manner in which

ANNUAL TREAT HELD LAST THURSDAY NIGHTExcellent Programme Given by the Scholars in Wesley Hall Last Thursday Evening

The annual treat and concert of the Union Church Sunday School was held in the Wesley Hall last Thursday evening, and a very happy time was spent by the children—and the parents, too. The splendid supper provided for the occasion by the ladies of the congregation appeared to meet with the entire approval of the children as they attacked the numerous good things with evident relish. After this delightful portion of the evening had been brought to a successful conclusion a number of vocal and instrumental numbers were given, Mr. J. T. Taylor, superintendent of the Sunday School, acting as chairman. Those taking part in the programme were: Recitation, John Speedie; song, Kathleen Watts; piano solo (own composition) Florence Hambley; recitation, Lane McKay; recitation, Wilma Crichton; recitation, Dorcas Williams; duet, the Keeler sisters; recitation, Mona Cowell; recitation, Dorcas Williams; song, Esther Griffiths; recitation, Anah Jackson; recitation, Winifred Taylor; recitation, Eileen Way; recitation, Myrtle Wilson; recitation, Hope Crichton; recitation, Megan Griffiths; sketch, Hester Dickson, Kathleen Taylor and Florence Hambley.

Mr. Taylor spoke briefly on matters relative to the Sunday School, the past year being a very satisfactory one in every way. At the conclusion of the programme, games were indulged in for an hour or so, when the happy event came to a close.

ANNUAL MEETING POSTPONED

Owing to the inclement weather, and also to the fact that a number of the members are on the sick list, the annual meeting of the North Saanich W. I. did not take place last Tuesday afternoon. There was some routine work disposed of during the afternoon, but the annual meeting will take place on Jan. 16, when Mrs. Todd, of Victoria, will be present to conduct a model Institute meeting. Local talent will supply two vocal selections during the afternoon. All members are requested to keep this date in mind and attend the meeting.

Real Jolly Time
Last Thursday

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wright, Mount Baker, on Thursday, Dec. 28, those present expressing their delight at the happy evening provided by their host and hostess. Dancing was commenced about 8:30 p.m. and was followed by a game of "Hunt the Thimble." A smelling competition was the next in order, which caused considerable merriment. Twenty-one mysterious little packages had been provided, and those the guests had to guess the contents. Miss Phyllis McKillop, Norman Armstrong and F. Hardisty guessed 17 of them. There being three tied for first prize, a draw took place, F. Hardisty being the lucky one. At this stage of the proceedings it was announced that all guests had either to sing a song, play or tell a story. Mr. A. Critchley, in order not to make the other guests feel bad, did not sing, so he recited the following very pathetic verse:

"Old Mother Hubbard went to her cupboard
To get her poor Little some oil.
When she got there the cupboard was bare,
So Lizzie continued to holl."

After the rendition of this touching ("touching" is right) spasm, several of these present were prostrated with grief.

A tantalizing competition, each one being blindfolded, was won by F. Hardisty, guessing 16 out of the 20 articles.

Of course, the inner man had been amply provided for by the hostess, and the enthusiastic manner in which

DEEP COVE LOCAL AND

SAANICHTON LOCAL
AND PERSONAL NEWSMany Enjoyed the Social Evening Held by the Saanich Athletic Association

(Review Correspondent.)
SAANICHTON, Jan. 3.—Quite an enjoyable time was spent at the Agricultural Hall on Thursday evening, Dec. 28, when a social evening was held by the Saanich Athletic Association. The boys had quite a gay time in entertaining the ladies. The evening commenced with playing progressive 500, and some keen competition took place. The ladies' prize was won by Miss A. Malcolm, with 1,780 points, and the gentlemen's prize was won with a score of 1,580 points. After the card games dancing took place till a late hour. During the evening supper was served by the young gentlemen of the club.

Quite a large number of people from Saanichton attended the dance held by the Deep Cove Social Club on Monday evening.

A basketball game was played in the Agricultural Hall on Saturday night between the five Lannon brothers and a picked team from the Saanich Athletic Association. The game was fast and clean, ending in a win for the Lannon brothers with a score of 27-11. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Saanichton—A. Buckle, B. Buckle, R. Crawford, W. McNally, C. Hull. Lannon Brothers—M. Lannon, P. Lannon, G. Lannon, J. Lannon, A. Lannon.

After the game military 500 was played. The winners were: First prize, Mr. E. John, Mr. Holden, Mr. B. Buckle, Mr. H. Rochefort. Second prizes, Mrs. Crawford, Mr. J. Brooks, Mr. W. McNally, Mr. A. Wright. At the close of the game refreshments were served by the ladies of the association.

SERVES YOU RIGHT

The Eskimo sleeps in his little bear skin.
And keeps very warm, I am told.
Last night I slept in my little bare skin,
And caught a terrible cold.

THAT'S WHY THEY CALL HIM JACKASS

Sam, a colored "slicker," had sold a mule to Mose. In a few days Mose came back and claimed the mule was blind.

"Why, Mose, what makes you all think dat mule am blind?"

"Sam, I done turn dat mule in a pasture, and he run right smack into a tree."

Sam—"Dat mule ain't blind. He just don't give a damn."

NOT A STEADY JOB

Helper—No. There are three or four hours every night when I don't do anything but fool away the time sleeping.

CHANGED HIS MIND

First Tramp—Funny thing happened today.

Second Tramp—What was it?

First Tramp—Lady gave me meat; told me to split wood. I told her I wouldn't do it. She called out a big bulldog—

Second Tramp—Call that funny?

First Tramp—Yes, I thought I'd split.

OUR ENGLISH

Mother—No, you're not! I'm having trouble enough with the cockroaches and am not going to have the house overrun with those radio bugs I've been reading about.

A SPLENDID REPORT

He and she were watching the infantry manoeuvres and everything was going fine until suddenly there was a volley from the rifles. She threw her arms around his neck.

Oh, Mr. Smith, I hope you will pardon me, I was so frightened."

"That's all right. Won't you come with me and watch the artillery practice?"

NO DOUBT HE DOES

The spendthrift who used to take his girl to all the free lectures and to see circus parades is now piloting her around to the radio concerts in his neighborhood.—Exchange.

HEARD IN SIDNEY

She lifted her pale face appealingly to the man standing before her with a long, gleaming knife in his hand.

"Have you no heart?" she asked weakly.

"No," he said, gruffly.

"Then let me have a little liver."

HORRID MAN

"I wouldn't marry you," she said scornfully, "if you were the only man in the world."

"No, you wouldn't," he answered. "You'd get trampled to death in the rush."

ACTION ORDERED

Mr. Blimp—"Remember, the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world, don't forget that, dear."

Mrs. Blimp—"Then come and rule the world for a bit. I'm tired."

DOMINION EXPERIMENTAL STATION

THE BEST ROSES

We receive many communications from parties all over the district asking us to recommend the best in roses. The problem is not an easy one since we do not all look for the same thing in roses, and what pleases one does not at all times please the other.

Much confusion also exists in the classification; one authority placing a rose in one class while another somewhere else. In an attempt to answer, we have written several of the local growers asking for a list of their best roses placed in their proper class. If a rose stands the test of appearing in more than one of these lists the chances are that it is a good one. Lists of roses as given by the B. C. Nursery Co., W. J. Savory, Victoria; the gardener, Butchart's Gardens, are here given. These are placed beside roses which have done well at the Experimental Station.

THE NEW TAX—WHAT A RECEIPT MEANS

A receipt means any note, memorandum or writing whereby any money amounting to ten dollars or upwards, or any bill of exchange or promissory note for money amounting to ten dollars or upwards, is acknowledged or expressed to have been received or repaid, or whereby any debt or demand, of the amount of ten dollars or upwards is acknowledged to have been settled, satisfied or discharged, or which signifies or imports any such acknowledgement, and whether the same is, or is not, signed with the name of any person.

A man who gives his children habits of industry, provides them better than by giving them a fortune.

The greatest thing a human soul ever does in this world is to see something and tell what it saw in a plain way. The words of people can talk for one who can think, but thousands can think for one who can see. To see clearly is poetry, prophecy and religion, all in one.

CANADA HAS SPENT $50,000,000 ON HIGHWAYS.

Fifty million dollars will have been spent on improving Canada's highways, many of which are of the asphalitic or resilient types, when the five-year period terminates in the fall of 1923, according to reports received by A. W. Campbell, Dominion Commissioner of Highways. Of this total $20,000,000 will have been appropriated by the Dominion Government and the remainder by the different provinces. Of the Dominion sum there is yet $800,000 to be taken up by the PProvinces.

Agreements have already been entered into by the Province of Ontario calling for an expenditure of $12,- 500,000 by the end of this year, of which sum $5,000,000 is the Dominion share.

The New Brunswick Government now has all of its appropriation of $3,000,000 under agreement, the Dominion Government contributing $1,200,000. A total of 1,595 miles of highways are scheduled for improvement.

Alberta, the last province to take part in the Dominion highway scheme, has just filed, for approval, plans for road improvement under the Canada Highways Act. All of the provinces are now working under the general regulations provided by this Act, and the work throughout the provinces is being carried out in accordance with uniform standard specifications.—Municipal Review.

TIMBER LANDS IN CANADA

The Governments of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and British Columbia own all but about 15 per cent of the forest lands, although a considerable quantity of the timber growing thereon is under annual lease to the wood-using industries. Canadians, it is to be feared, often forget the enormous advantage they possess over the people of the United States who have wholly alienated both land and timber over nearly 75 per cent of the republic. The particular advantage in Canada's position is that the State, which in all lands is the one qualified authority to ensure the perpetuation of the Nation's forests, retains constitutional authority to impose whatever conservation requirements the needs of the public demand. The citizens of the United States, recently aroused to the need of forest conservation, find themselves without that public power over the timber areas which has so wisely been retained for the Canadian people.

LARGEST NEWSPRINT MILL IN THE WORLD.

A despatch to the Financial Post from New York quotes James B. Duke, who is associated with Sir William Price in plans for the development of power on Lake St. John and Saguenay River, as declaring that the company that had been formed would develop the largest paper mills in the world in Canada. Instead of 1,000,000 h.p. Mr. Duke declares that the total will reach 1,200,- 000, the first unit being 400,000 h.p. at the place where the lake empties into the river, the other being some 22 miles from the lake. It is stated that Price Bros. have entered into a contract with the new Company for 200,- 000 h.p. for use in their mills and high power transmission lines from the first plant leading directly to the Price mills. It is also announced that Price Bros. with the new power available will construct new mills and make the Company the largest producer of newsprint paper in the world. The position is held at present by the International Paper Co. which has a capacity of about 1,200 tons daily of newsprint and about 500 tons of other grades of paper. The new Company, which has been incorporated, in capitalized at $25,000,000, and it is stated that the entire capital stock has been subscribed by Mr. Duke and Sir William Price.

WORLD WHEAT SUPPLY

The world's wheat situation for 1922-23, as reviewed by the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, shows a world export surplus of 950,000,000 bushels, and requirements of importing countries to be 923,000,- 000 bushels. In announcing the figures recently, the Department of Agriculture said it seemed the surplus would be quite sufficient to supply the demand and leave a good balance at the beginning of next season.

SOCKEYE PACK OF YEAR QUITE HEAVY.

There was a material improvement in the B. C. salmon pack last year. The total for the province is 1,- 290,326 cases, which is 102,710 ahead of 1920 and half as much again as 1921. The gain in pink and chums alone is 840,183 cases. These grades were packed by but few canneries in 1921, but there is now a market demand for them. The sockeye pack for 1922 totalled 299,614 cases, 1921 163,914. The sockeye pack by districts with comparative figures follows:

Fraser	39,631	48,744
Skeena	41,018	100,667
Rivers' Inlet	48,615	60,700
Nass River	9,364	31,277
Vancouver Island	6,936	18,235

Totals 163,914 299,614

BANK OF MONTREAL.

Of perhaps greatest importance in the annual statement of the Bank of Montreal is that the bank has been able to adequately meet the demands of industry and commerce and at the same time keep its liquid assets at a ratio of 64.09 per cent of liabilities to the public.

At the end of the fiscal year to Oct. 31, total assets amounted to $713,569,565, and of this amount liquid assets were $417,819,493. Cash holdings alone were equivalent to 19.10 per cent of public liabilities.

Deposits bearing interest reach a total of $410,870,- 730, and those not bearing interest $164,747,019, bringing the total to $605,617,749.

During the year both the Capital and Rest Account have been brought up to $27,250,000.

The Profit and Loss Account reflects the larger business now being handled throughout the Dominion. Profits for the year amounted to $4,756,668. These permitted of the payment of the usual dividend and bonus to shareholders. After these payments and making provision for Dominion taxes, reservation for bank premises, etc., the balance carried forward amounted to $558,815.

B. C. ELECTRIC EARNINGS.

The British Columbia Electric Company reports, says the Financial Post, gross earnings for the month of October amounting to $861,812 compared with $845,973 for October, 1921. Working expenses, maintenance, etc., were down to $604,573 as compared with $631,458, and net income amounting to $257,239, was higher by $42,- 724. The aggregate gross from July 1, 1921, to Oct. 31 last totalled $3,375,461 as against $3,375,467, while the aggregate net earnings at $948,336 showed an increase of $103,935.

C. P. R. SHOWS BIG DECEMBER INCREASE

The traffic earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway
Co., for the week ending Dec. 14, amounted to $4,113,- 000, an increase compared with the same period last year of $302,000, representing an advance of 7.9 per cent.
The increase for the first week of December was $752,000 making a total increase for the first two weeks of $1,- 054,000. Indications now seem bright for another $2,- 000,000 increase in gross earnings for the month of December which in turn would indicate a very substantial increase in net earnings.

Grand Trunk Railway traffic receipts for the week ended Dec. 14, were $2,075,228, compared with $1,717,- 516 in 1921, an increase of $357,712, or 20.83 per cent.

The gross earnings of the Canadian National Railways for the week ending Dec. 14 were $2,485,339, a decrease of $148,484 from the corresponding week of last year. Gross earnings from Jan. 1 to date were $114,- $16,535, a decrease of $5,785,288 from the corresponding period of last year.

THE BATTLE OF THREE RIVERS

Arrangements have been made by the Department of the Interior to erect a monument on des Forges Street, at Three Rivers, Quebec, to commemorate one of the most interesting of the minor battles that followed the American attack on Quebec by Arnold and Montgomery in 1775. In the spring of the following year many of the American troops passed Three Rivers in wretched condition and the evacuation of the country seemed to be proceeding at great speed, but on June 8 it was learned that an American column was marching on the town, which was without garrison or defence. A corps of volunteers was organized by Joseph Boucher de Niverville who managed to hold the enemy at bay until the arrival of a detachment of Royal Light Infantry from Quebec.
A constant fire was maintained by the Canadians and the Americans were dispersed.

The Americans had captured Antoine Gauthier, habitant, and obliged him to act as their guide. "Gauthier pointed out to them," says Dr. Suite, the Canadian Historian, "the great risk of marching by the main road on account of the gunboats watching along the river and consequently he was allowed to strike through the bush to Ste. Marguerite. He lengthened the circuit so well that the troops in town had time to cut a long trench in the common and plant the battery on the crests of the hill near-by so as to cover the most part of the common. On June 8 the attack was made on the whole line of the trench but the Americans were so well peppered by the rifles and cannon that they retired without renewing the attempt."

Mr. William McLean of Three Rivers has generously donated a piece of ground near the site of this battle. A monument is to be erected and a memorial bronze statue placed thereon.

OUR WEEKLY CANADIAN WHO'S WHO

By the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., Toronto

THE PREMIER OF CANADA

In starting a series of brief biographical sketches under the title of "Our Weekly Canadian Who's Who," it is fitting that the First Minister of Canada should also have the premier place by reason of being at the same time the First Citizen and the tenth person to fill that important position since Confederation. The Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King is one of the youthful Prime Ministers, being, like his immediate predecessor, Hon. Arthur Meighan, only in the forties as yet, and therefore in his early prime. It involves no political partisanship to say that the Prime Minister had long years of preparation for his task, as a student, a member of the Dominion Civil Service, as Deputy Minister of Labor, and later as Minister of Labor in the Laurier Government. After the defeat of that Government, Mr. King spent a period of years with the Rockefeller Foundation in studying social and economic conditions under its leadership, but as in the effort to put into practice the theories and legislation he had sponsored for the amelioration of the struggle between capital and labor and the settlement of disputes, in which report it would seem he was successful. Again arising out of this period of activity, Mr. King wrote a book entitled "Labor and Democracy," which has been accepted as a valuable contribution to the subject indicated. The Premier has entered upon a heavy and exacting task is guiding the destinies of this growing Dominion, in which men of all parties will join in wishing him a degree of success that will contribute to the best interests of our common country.

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD.

Although John A. Macdonald was born in Glasgow on Jan. 11, 1815, he spent almost his entire life in the land whose greatness owed so much to his vision and statecraft. Oddly enough he came to Canada the same year—1820—as another young Scotchman, who was destined to leave his impress on his adopted land—William Lyon Mackenzie. Young Macdonald was educated in the Kingston Grammar School, studied law when only 15, and practiced that as his profession, one of his partners being Oliver Mowat, with whom he was destined to come in political conflict in later years. John A. Macdonald lived to be Premier of Canada during three successive periods, being richly dowered by nature for the duties of leadership, but perhaps his greatest contribution was in uniting with George Brown and other leaders in bringing Confederation to pass in 1867. Lord Roseberry said of him on his death, "He had grasped the central idea that the British Empire is the greatest secular agency for good now known to mankind; that was the secret of his success, and that he determined to die under it, and strove that Canada should live under it." The knighthood received from Queen Victoria was a recognition not only of his Canadian but his Imperial success, during half a century of an eventful period in the development of the Dominion.

Rude Rural Rhymes

RAZORS

O where is now the good old blade with which the old-time shave was made, the grass-hook which with pain and trouble was wont to reap our grandsires' stubble? No nice-hot-water came from spigots to soak the beards of those old bigots. They had no modern lather dope, but worked theirs up from yaller soap. My grandsire's beard was tough and strong; he had a blade six inches long, the meanest one you ever saw, which used to leave him red and saw. He stropped the same with steady licks, he sought to smooth its deadly nicks, yet slashed himself in many a spot and said some things he'd ought to not. His tough old hide he made long slits in and said weird words like "ding" and "blitzen." I learned those oaths and used them both, when whacking off my whiskery growth, and thus he came a wicked phraser when I began to use a razor. But now no more a frenzied stropper, my words are pure and chaste and proper. My safety razor's good, though cheap; it cuts sometimes but can't cut deep. For even I, long unconvinced, though oft my jaw was slashed and minced, have laid my sickle on the shelf like many a gent who shaves himself. But that old blade this bald bard scorns not long the upper shelf adorns ere Hannah gets it for her corns. The wily edge that saved my whiskers, now whittles down her aching diskers. She wields the weapon well I wist and is her own chiropodist.

The Review Job Printing Dept.

We are in a position to handle job work in a satisfactory manner, and will appreciate any orders received. The Review plant is well equipped in every way, being the largest and most up-to-date of any found in a town the size of Sidney. We have added considerable equipment to the Review plant during the past year or so in order to be in a position to successfully handle anything that may be placed in our hands in the commercial job printing line. The Review has had splendid support in this direction, and this fact is very much appreciated. If at any time our customers are not satisfied we hope they will tell us so, and we will endeavor to make it right. We go on the principal that only the very best work is wanted by our many customers, and we endeavor to give them what they want. To those who have printing to be done, we ask them to give us a chance to do it. We feel sure that our prices will be found reasonable, consistent with good workmanship.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

"THE ROAD TO LONDON"

Bryant Washburn will be seen at the Auditorium this week in "The Road to London." This picture will be of great interest to many of those who know the metropolis of the world and the country surrounding it, as many of the scenes will be shown in this picture.

"Meet the Wife"

The Federated Hallboys' comedy "Meet the Wife," will be worth seeing as this company puts on some excellent comedies.

"The Farmer and His Cat"

A Pathe cartoon, "The Farmer and His Cat," will also be shown. The entire bill for this week's show should be enjoyed from start to finish.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hambley, Fourth street, was the scene of a very enjoyable Christmas party given by their daughter, Florence, who entertained a number of her girl friends last Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 5 p.m. Games and guessing contests were indulged in until tea was announced. The tea table was very prettily decorated, there being suspended from the ceiling a large bell decorated with tinsel and from this streamers were run to each place at the table. The unique feature of the decoration was that a guessing contest was attached to each streamer, and the guests were requested to solve their own particular problem. This created a good deal of merriment and was enjoyed by all of those present. The evening came to a close all too soon for the young ladies, who had a thoroughly enjoyable time. Owing to illness several of the invited guests were unable to attend. Those present were Annie Miller, Ellen Voss, Adeline Crossley, Rhoda Craig, Ivy Hill, Helen Cochran and Olive Gillman.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS FROM GALIANO

Delightful Dance Held at Active Pass Ranch on Thursday, December 28

(Review Correspondent.)

GALIANO, ISLAND, Jan. 2.—Mrs. J. W. Bellhouse and the Misses J. and K. Bellhouse were hostesses at a most delightful dance on Dec. 28 at Active Pass Ranch, the occasion being the coming out of Miss Phyllis Bellhouse. Miss Phyllis made a most charming debutante in her dainty white gown. Among those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Geo. Maude, C. Elverson, A. Kingsmill, W. Thomas, V. Zala, S. Page, H. Harris, Mrs. A. Scoones, Mrs. C. Twiss, Misses V. Maude, D. Scoones, N. Steward, M. Marshall, Messrs. A. Cayzer, R. Hall, Dermot Crofton, J. Burrill, G. Steward, J. Kingsmill, P. Steward, Desmond Crofton, H. Hardy, T. Bellhouse. The vocal selections given by Mrs. Scoones during the evening contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. A dainty buffet supper was served.

The Christmas entertainment given by the Sunday School pupils, under the direction of Mrs. A. Cayzer, was a great success. About 70 guests were present. The program consisted of nursery rhymes cleverly acted by the children. Angus Murchison as "Little Boy Blue"; John Page, as "Little Jack Horner"; Barbara Twiss, as "Mary, Quite Contrary"; Edwina Morgan, as "Little Miss Muffet"; and as "Little Bo Peep"; Douglas Yorke, as "Pat-a-Cake" were very pleasing. Nigel Morgan's rendering of "There Was a Little Man Who Had a Little Gun" was very realistic—even to the live duck. "When I Was Young and Had No Sense I Bought a Fiddle For Eighteen Pence," as given by Fred Yorke was well applauded. Rosamond Murchison and Nigel Morgan in "Where Are You Going, My Pretty Maid?" acquitted themselves very creditably. The Golliwog Dance by Fred and Douglas Yorke and Ronald and Kenneth Page delighted the audience. The playlet entitled "Bluebeard," given by Miss Phyllis Bellhouse and Miss Bunty Yorke, assisted by Mr. Denroche, was very well acted. The closing tableau was given by Miss Bunty Yorke and Miss Phyllis Bellhouse—who represented the "Old Year"—and the "New Year" very charmingly. While the tea was being served each child received a present. "God Save the King" and three cheers for Mrs. Cayzer ended the enjoyable afternoon.

Many Enjoyed Five Hundred Tournament Given by West Saanich Institute

(Review Correspondent.)

WEST SAANICH, Jan. 2.—An enjoyable evening was spent at the West Saanich W. I. rooms on Wednesday, Dec. 27, when the fortnightly five hundred tournament took place. Being Christmas week extra prizes were given, and those successful in gaining same were: First, Mrs. Hall, Mr. Bourgeois, Mr. Starling and Mr. H. Elford. Second, Miss Ursula Starling, Miss Gladys Guy, Mr. Shields and Mr. L. Hagan. Consolations, Mrs. W. O. Wallace, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. R. Freeland and Mr. Stanley Bickford. The prize for the highest successful bid was won by Mr. Leslie Starling on a ten no trump.

The annual Christmas concert at the Baptist Memorial Sunday school took place on Thursday, Dec. 28. Both teachers and scholars take part in this and it is without doubt one of the most interesting events of the season. The "tiny tots" in their action songs caused roars of laughter, while the singing and recitations by the older pupils were par excellence. At the close of the concert Santa Claus made his appearance and commenced to distribute gifts right and left, stripping the tree. Refreshments were served and the evening's proceedings brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Saanich Road, on Wednesday, Dec. 27, when Lillian Irene, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Daly, became the bride of Mr. George Watt, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Watt, of "Fir Brae," Durrance. The bride looked handsome in a gown of brown broadcloth with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet. She was attended by Miss Bessie McWilliams and Mr. A. Watt acted as best man. A large number of friends and relatives were present, the bride and bridegroom being well known and much esteemed in the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Watt left for Vancouver, where the honeymoon is being spent, after which they will make their home at Durrance.

Residents of the district received a great shock on Monday morning when it became known that Mr. James Johnston, of the Keating Cross Road, had suddenly succumbed in the early hours of the morning.

Mr. Johnston was a highly respected member of the community, and his sudden demise will be sincerely regretted by all who knew him. The late Mr. Johnston was a native of Victoria and has for the past ten years made his home on the Keating Cross Road. The sympathy of the whole neighborhood goes out to his widow and two small daughters, who survive him.

MOUNT NEWTON SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

A Very Enjoyable Time Spent by the Parents and Scholars of Mt. Newton Sunday School

MOUNT NEWTON, Jan. 2.—The scholars and teachers of Mount Newton Sunday School held their annual supper and Christmas tree concert on Thursday, Dec. 28. The scholars gathered at 5.30 p.m. to partake of a splendid supper, the older folks having supper later on.

The concert commenced at 7 p.m. with the whole congregation singing favorite Christmas carols, and by this time the hall was packed to the doors. Chorus, "Ring, Ring, Tuncful Welcome Bells," was sung by the scholars, followed by an action song with dolls by the primary department, in charge of Mrs. N. Beswick. The scholars taking part were Edith Munro, Grace Marshall, Sylvia Gorton, Rattle and Nora Hore, Glynce Jones, Florence Nunn, each one doing remarkably well. Chorus, "Ring Out the Gospel Bells," by the scholars, was followed by an acrostic on "Gospel Bells," by the senior girls, each having a banner with their letter and reciting and singing verses between. The next number was a chorus by the senior scholars, "Like Silver Bells in Distance Shining. Solas by Mr. H. L. Ricketts and Mr. J. Mowland were much appreciated.

Special mention might be made of the drills by the senior girls. To the strains of the organ they marched from the class room, all in white with their silver wands and stars. A chorus was sung between each drill which were well applauded. The following table shows each part of the

A duet by Messrs. W. Beswick and W. Boshier was well rendered.

The scholars sang another Christmas carol, and while doing so they were startled by the knock of Santa Claus on the door. Of course, all present were glad to meet him again. After expressing his delight in again being present and to notice how the attendance had increased during the year, he proceeded to present the various gifts to those present. Mr. Jones officiated as Santa, a part in which he excelled. Three cheers were given for Santa before he left and all hope to see him again next Christmas.

The superintendent then proceeded to present books from himself to the following scholars who had the highest attendance marks: Glynce Jones, 53; Wesley Jones, 53; Edith Readings, 53; Grace Marshall, 52; Ronald Marshall, 52; Ralph Marshall, 52; John Munro, 52; Sidney Beswick, 52; Lillian Nunn, 50.

The superintendent extended thanks to the parents present for sending their children to the school, which had greatly increased during the year.
